

Staff Appreciation

- Several times throughout the school year, but the biggest event being Staff Appreciation Week in early May.
- During planning, about 5-10 hours a week
- This position can be shared
- Plan Staff Appreciation Week events
- Find classroom parents to plan quarterly staff luncheons
- Be creative!
- Report to the Board

- The PTSO believes that it is important to support the staff and let them know they are appreciated in practical, tangible ways
- Distribute a teacher wish list at the beginning of the year
- It helps to get the Room Parents involved

